Stock & Availability (OOS Control) Checklist
Checkpoint	Status (✓/✗)	Notes
No out-of-stock (OOS) products in key or priority SKUs
High-selling / fast-moving products are available on shelves
Safety stock level is maintained for critical products
Shelf stock matches backroom / storage stock
No empty shelf gaps in visible selling areas
Products are replenished regularly and on time
Refill process is active during store hours if needed
Backroom stock is organized and accessible
No overstock blocking shelves or aisles
Inventory rotation (FIFO / FEFO) is properly followed
No expired products in shelf or storage
Damaged or defective products are removed from shelves
Correct product is placed in the correct shelf location
Facing quantity meets planogram / shelf standard
Shelf capacity is used efficiently
No hidden OOS behind front-facing products
Replenishment alerts / stock checks are performed regularly

Promotional products are sufficiently stocked
New launch / campaign products are available
Substitute or alternative products are available if primary SKU is OOS
Barcode / SKU matches the correct product
Inventory data reflects real shelf availability
No misplaced or mixed products on shelves
Stock visibility is clear for staff monitoring
No blocked access to stock or refill areas
Store maintains overall stock health and availability
Overall product availability meets store standards		